

Music in the Mountains

2003 Schedule of Free Sunday Concerts

JUNE 1	3:30pm-6:30pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Snappy swing music of the Ron Bartley Swing Band set the stage for an old fashioned picnic in the park. Dance your way back into the times of Glen Miller. Bring blanket and a picnic. Donation requested.
JUNE 8	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Hard Times Blues Band will be performing Blues in the park
JULY 13	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Riverboat Dixie is a ten-member band that plays jazz music composed from 1897 through the Jazz Age, including blues and ragtime.
AUG 3	4:00pm-6:00pm Paramount Ranch	Join the National Park Service for an afternoon of memorable film score music performed by The 562 Air Force Band , The Air National Guard Band of the Southwest . Bring a folding chair or blanket. Note: This concert will be at Paramount Ranch.
AUG 10	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Iron Mountain String Band has performed for the past three decades on the radio, at numerous festivals, concerts, colleges and clubs from South Carolina to California. This three-member group is patterned after many of the old-time Appalachian string bands of the 1920's.
SEPT 7	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Singer Toni Jannotta and her group will cover the jazz spectrum from bebop to ballads.
SEPT 14	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Topanga Banjo Fiddle Contest will co-host this Sunday concert in the park. Artist to be announced.
OCT 12	2:00pm-4:00pm Peter Strauss Ranch	Bernie Pearl Blues Trio will finish off our season of Music in the Mountains. Bernie has been performing for over 30 years and was a former KLON-FM disc jockey and founder of the Long Beach Blues Festival.

For more information and direction to sites, please call the National Park Service at 805-370-2301.